1670

Ora, Louise, Helen, Aunt Jennie, Aunt Nettie
Niagara Falls, August 3, 1924

Peacock by the milkhouse, 1926

Helen and the horse Dick

Dale (a police dog that belonged to WAR)

Snooky (a Russell dog)

James Russell Nov. 18, 1877 brother of WAR

Aunt Nettie and Aunt Jennie, 1907 (oval photographs; studio; also in the collection of HLRP)

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

"D-B-D-B-D-B-D-B-D-B-D-B-D-B-D-B"

On December 25, 1977, MLW stated that she can not whistle. In training her dachshund, Heidi, to come when called MLW therefore developed a whistle substitute which consists of a high-pitched, rapidly-delivered sequence of the sounds "d" (pronounced as in the word "Adam") and "b" (pronounced as in the word "rib"), to which, be it known, Heidi obediently responds.